

Please see that this ridiculous rule requiring commercial pilots to retire at age 60 be rescinded. When I fly commercially, I would much rather have an experienced proficient 60+ pilot in charge and sharing knowledge with others as long as physically able to do so.